PRE2 / LESSON 05

A Gallery in a Shoebox

READ & THINK

Nora collects pictures of doors.

She wants to make a museum.

She puts each picture inside a shoebox and adds a paper wall.

One door is yellow.

Another has a silver handle.

Visitors take a tour through a window.

They cannot touch the pictures, but they can choose a favorite.

They cannot touch the pictures, but they can choose a favorite.

1. What is this story mainly about?

A. A shop selling new door handles
B. A girl painting her bedroom door
C. A small museum of door pictures

2. How do visitors see the pictures?

A. Through an open roof
B. Through an open door
C. Through a window

3. Choose the best word for the blank.

Another has a silver _____.

A. picture B. handle C. wall

4. Where does Nora put each picture?

Write one complete sentence.

5. What pictures would you put in a small museum?