PRE2 / LESSON 06

A Board Game for Grandpa

READ & THINK

Grandpa loves games, but the pieces are difficult for his fingers.

I want to make bigger ones.

I cut circles from cardboard and paint famous superheroes on them.

Grandpa tries our new board.

He moves a giant hero across it.

"Now I can see my chance to win!" he says.

"Now I can see my chance to win!" he says.

1. What is this story mainly about?

A. Buying Grandpa a new board game
B. Teaching Grandpa to paint a hero
C. Making game pieces easier for Grandpa to use

2. What does the writer cut from cardboard?

A. Squares
B. Stars
C. Circles

3. Choose the best word for the blank.

He moves a _____ hero across it.

A. giant B. tiny C. broken

4. Why does the writer make bigger pieces?

Write one complete sentence.

5. What would you change in a game to help someone?