PRE2 / LESSON 08

The Picnic's Smallest Guest

READ & THINK

We spread a blanket beside the woods.

My twin cousins carry peaches and shrimp sandwiches.

A butterfly lands on an empty plate.

"Our first guest!" one whispers.

We do not feed it our lunch.

We watch its beautiful wings.

It flies toward flowers.

Now we can open the picnic basket.

Now we can open the picnic basket.

1. What is this story mainly about?

A. Looking for a lost picnic basket
B. Watching a butterfly during a picnic
C. Making lunch for hungry butterflies

2. Where does the butterfly land?

A. On an empty plate
B. On a sandwich
C. Inside the basket

3. Choose the best word for the blank.

We watch its beautiful _____.

A. legs B. wings C. eyes

4. Where does the butterfly fly next?

Write one complete sentence.

5. What would you do if a butterfly landed near your lunch?