PRE2 / LESSON 09

A Recipe without Words

READ & THINK

Grandma and our neighbor want to cook together.

They do not speak the same language.

Grandma draws a carrot.

Her friend draws a potato.

Soon their paper is full of vegetables.

They wash, cut, and stir.

I draw a hungry face beside a bowl.

Both cooks understand me at once!

Both cooks understand me at once!

1. What is this story mainly about?

A. Cooking and sharing ideas through pictures
B. Buying vegetables at a market
C. Learning new words from a cookbook

2. What does Grandma draw?

A. A hungry face
B. A carrot
C. A potato

3. Choose the best word for the blank.

They wash, cut, and _____.

A. stir B. draw C. carry

4. Why do the two cooks use pictures?

Write one complete sentence.

5. What would you draw to show that you are thirsty?