PRE2 / LESSON 11

The Wind's Silver Present

READ & THINK

A silver thread shines between two branches.

"Is it a necklace?" I ask.

Dad points to a spider.

Its web is sticky.

A weak leaf hangs nearby.

We cannot see the whole web in the shade.

In the sunshine, its pattern appears.

What a clever builder!

What a clever builder!

1. What is this story mainly about?

A. Finding a lost silver necklace
B. Helping a bird build a nest
C. Finding a spider's web in the light

2. What does Dad point to?

A. A spider
B. A bird
C. A necklace

3. Choose the best word for the blank.

Its web is _____.

A. sticky B. dry C. smooth

4. Where can the family see the web's pattern clearly?

Write one complete sentence.

5. What would you like to look at closely outdoors?