PRE2 / LESSON 14

The Missing Broom

READ & THINK

It's time to write our classroom newspaper.

Today's story is about a missing broom.

Do our teachers have it?

No.

We find it behind the trash can.

"Wipe the handle," Mina says.

"Then sweep!"

I erase our first headline.

Our new headline is "Reporters Clean Up Their Own Mess!"

Our new headline is "Reporters Clean Up Their Own Mess!"

1. What is this story mainly about?

A. Children buying a classroom newspaper
B. Teachers hiding a broom from children
C. Young reporters finding a broom and cleaning up

2. Where do the children find the broom?

A. Beside the classroom door
B. Behind the trash can
C. Under a desk

3. Choose the best word for the blank.

Then _____!

A. draw B. write C. sweep

4. Why does the writer change the headline?

Write one complete sentence.

5. What classroom job would you like to help with?