PRE2 / LESSON 17

Crunch, Crackle, Stomp!

READ & THINK

Can a cabbage sound like a giant's footsteps?

In our studio, it can!

My job is making sounds for films.

I break dry leaves and shake a box of stones.

Are real monsters here?

No!

My brother listens through headphones.

We spend an hour making one monster's noisy walk.

We spend an hour making one monster's noisy walk.

1. What is this story mainly about?

A. Making pretend monster sounds for films
B. Collecting leaves for a garden
C. Watching a monster film with a brother

2. What does the writer shake?

A. A bag of rice
B. A box of stones
C. A bag of leaves

3. Choose the best word for the blank.

My brother listens through _____.

A. headphones B. gloves C. glasses

4. Why does the writer break dry leaves?

Write one complete sentence.

5. What sound would you make for a film?